

Multiple Intelligences Homework Grid Year 3 and 4 Spring Term

Choose a project to complete using paper or on computer. Return date for the projects – Friday 28th March 2025.

Minimum requirement for homework is to complete a minimum of 2 projects.

Word Smart Research technical and scientific words that explain how volcanoes and earthquakes happen. Make a glossary or a dictionary. Create a poem anthology describing a volcanic eruption or an earth quake. You can write narrative or concrete poems. Use Purple Mash to create a report on volcanoes. 	Picture Smart Create a collage of a volcanic eruption or the water cycle using a variety of different materials. Use observational skills to research and draw Iceland’s national animal. 	Science Smart Create models and posters to show the properties of solids, liquids and gases. Use Purple Mash to identify the characteristics of solids liquids and gases. Investigate and discover which materials can change state, solid to liquid, liquid to gas. Use Purple Mash to describe the 6 important processes that make up the water cycle.
Nature Smart If the weather turns to snow, build an igloo style shelter to keep you warm. 	Choose a project which matches your own personal type of ‘Smart’.
Body Smart Imagine you are on the island of Heimaey and the volcano erupts perform a play or a poem to demonstrate your feelings and what is happening around you. You can record this and send it to, info@hunlokepark.derbyshire.sch	Self-Smart Write a diary entry about the day the volcano erupted in your village.	Music Smart Compose and perform a piece of music entitled” Natural Disaster”
E- Smart Use Purple Mash to help you identify which behaviours are safe on-line and which are not. Make a poster to show them.	Location Smart Find a high point in our area, and make a sketch map of the landscape, remember to label it, you can also use ordinance survey symbols. Research ordinance survey symbols. Create a map of your local area using the symbols.	In addition to completing projects, weekly spellings will be sent home for check-up on Mondays. The times table check-up will take place each Friday. Continue to learn the 100 words for year 3 / 4, a check –up will take place at the end of Spring Term.